

This topographic map of the Langres region in France shows the Aube department. The map is characterized by numerous contour lines representing the terrain's elevation. Key towns and cities are labeled, including Langres, Nogent-sur-Seine, and Troyes. A blue line, likely representing a railway or a specific route, is drawn across the map, starting from the top left and ending near the town of Langres, where it is labeled 'Final'. The map also shows various smaller towns, rivers, and geographical features.
